

Paperling 3 We Constructed in Class

1. Violators do not announce bad intentions when applying for a license.
  2. If violators do not announce bad intentions when applying for a license, licensing parents to prevent willful mistreatment offers no protection to abused children from people who we haven't yet caught abusing.
  3. Licensing parents to prevent willful mistreatment offers no protection to abused children from people who we haven't yet caught abusing. (From 1,2)
  4. Present childcare laws already allow for the removal of abused children from unsafe environments.
  5. If present childcare laws already allow for the removal of abused children from unsafe environments then licensing parents to prevent willful mistreatment offers no protection to abused children from people who have been caught abusing.
  6. Licensing parents to prevent willful mistreatment offers no protection to abused children from people who have been caught abusing. (From 4,5)
- C. Licensing parents to prevent willful mistreatment offers no new protection to abused children. (From 3,6)