

Reading Questions for April 12

These questions cover a reading by Sarah Broddle called “Making an effort to change homelessness in Manhattan”. The answers do not have to be turned in. You will probably have to read more than once to get the answers.

Background:

We are spending this week talking about what duties we have towards the homeless. On Monday we looked at a general introduction to the topic and on Wednesday we looked at medical testing on the homeless. Today, we’ll look at homelessness here in Manhattan and what (if anything) you all should do about it.

Questions:

1. What are the key facts Broddle offers regarding homelessness in Manhattan. What do you think; do you have any duties to the homeless in Manhattan? If so, what duties do you have? And why?
