

Mini Paper 4

Instructions: this assignment should be printed out and turned in in class on September 23. This paper should be under a page. I like to grade as anonymously as possible, so please do not put your name on the top of the paper, but instead put it on the opposite side of the page (or on a second page, if you can't print double-sided). If you have any questions about how to complete the assignment, please let me know.

Over the last three days, we've seen three different views on how to live one's life (Sartre's, Wolf's, and those of Buddhists). Which do you think is the most accurate? Why?

Here are some tips for this paper (these hold for philosophy papers in general).

- It should always be clear what you are doing at any given moment in your paper. One way to make sure things are clear is to include phrases in your paper like "First, I will ... next I will" or "I have just now I am going to"
- When you discuss something from the readings, it is usually a good idea to go beyond what they say, introducing some new things into the discussion.
